Introduction

The Resource Library is for multi-career senior executives with extensive career histories and a broad range of accomplishments. These executives have a difficult time in presenting their background and accomplishments as well as providing a clear focus on what they are looking for in new or growth career challenge.

The key to our career process is to (1) Understand how to present yourself, (2) build a career presentation, (3) develop a 'professional brand' that will make you stand out in the crowd of the 'best & brightest' and (4) develop the skills to present their skills, passions, and accomplishments for a new opportunity.

The resources represent a combined history of over twenty years of experience in senior recruiting and coaching including working with the many professional groups that support senior executives. The materials in this book cover the complex range of issues and decisions facing senior executives in deciding, preparing, and find the right next career challenge.
